

1. They use natural pigments mixed with cow dung. Bright acrylic paints with black lines are also used.
 2. Any two of the following: squares, rectangles, diamonds and circles.
 3. Any four of the following:
 - Geometric shapes (manmade shapes) such as rectangles and diamonds are used.
 - New shapes are created by joining one shape to another.
 - There are often shapes within other shapes.
 - Thick black lines are used to outline the shapes.
 - White is often used in the borders of shapes.
 - The colours used do not always follow a pattern.
 4. True
-