Dictionary use

This is an important skill.

(You will remember we discussed this right at the end of last term.)

Remember:

words are in alphabetical order,
headwords on a page help us to find the words in a dictionary,
there are a number of different definitions for most words,
meaning will vary according to how the word is used in context,
pronunciation of words (phonetics),
the part of speech,
the origin of the word.

Do Classroom activity 8 p. 113 in your classwork book.

Reading: I am sure that you are all done reading your class readers by now. Please register on My Rising Stars as per the School Communicator. Navigate to either Saturn / Blue Red Jane Eyre or Supernova / Red Plus The Hound of the Baskervilles and start reading! If you are unable to join the programme, please read any book of your choice that you have at home.

Spelling: For each of the following words, write down the word, the meaning and use it in a sentence. (Use a sheet of paper from your exam pad to do this and file it in your spelling file when you are done.)

Example:

Argument: an exchange of diverging or opposite views, typically a heated or angry one.

I have had an argument with my father.

Do this for each of the words.

Words Ending in -ant and -ent
